There were thirteen starters, and just as the horses were passing the was no stake on to-day's card here exept the Troy, a selling affair for the cept the Troy, a selling affair for the two-year-olds, at five and one-half furlongs. This was won in edge shalon by Gold Ten, who jumped away in front, made all the running and won easily. Trapper was heavily plunged on in this race, going to the post a facorite, but he had no speed and finished for back.

Waterboy was given another tritl to day. He had every chance to-day. Hawas favored by having Odom up and he was favored by having Odom up and he was away well. He, however, was FIRST RACE—Three-was likely that he is the way tunder contract to Hughle McCarren, of New York, and was considered one of the best boys riding at Fort Eric. up sound and good. This race produced a pretty drive between Eugenia Burch, ridden by Shaw, and Hello, ridden by Hildebrand. The mare won by a head. Eugenia Burch crowded Hello very close to the rail in the last sixteenth, otherwise the three-year-old might have won. Fort Hunter after his disgraceful raws of yesterday came right back and won on the bit in a seven-furlong dash, the opening event of the day. It is said that the owner of Fort Hunter was greatly displeased with Martin's riding yesterday, and that that was the reason he started him again to-day. The weather was fine and the track fast to-day. The attendance was good.

Waterboy Quit at Torn.

Waterboy was always favorite in the tind race, with Eugenia Burch the second choice. Hello was also well played. Waterboy and Hello went to the front and raced in close order to the backstretch, followed by Dalesman and Eugenia Burch. Near the far turn Hello went to the front and Waterboy was beaten. Eugenia Burch then moved up strong, and as soon as they straightened for home she closed on Hello. They ran like a team to the end, with the mare crowding Hello very close. Hugenia Burch managed to win by a nose from Hello, who was four lengths in front of Waterboy.

Geld Ten All the Way.

Gold Ten went to the front at the start and was never headed. She stayed in front all the way and won easily by a length and a half from Gamara, which finished strong and beat Martha Gorman half a length for the place. Mirthless looked to be third, but was not placed so by the judges.

Thistle Heather made the running, followed by Divination and Canajo harle. They held this order to the stretch, where Divination went to the front and won in a drive by a length from Go Between, who was two lengths
